Fig 2: The summary of coronavirus within the five African regions; 31 July 2020

- Cases and corresponding deaths continue to increase in the African continent.
- South Africa has reported the highest number of cases constituting approximately 53% of the total cases and 41% of the total deaths in the continent.
- In Eastern Africa, Kenya is the first country to post over 20,000 confirmed cases. However, Ethiopia is closely following Kenya and the cases are likely to reach 20,000 in a couple of days.
- Cases in Madagascar have in the last couple of weeks more than tripled and currently totaling more than 10,000.
